

www.JerryBruno.com (216) 986-1808

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Entertainment Booking Planner
<input type="checkbox"/>	Browse our web site to identify acts that will fit your event and taste in music. Check out video and audio clips, read client comments, review song lists, and get a good overview of what we are as a company. Join our email list for savings and news updates!
<input type="checkbox"/>	Contact our office by phone or email to talk with a knowledgeable professional or to just have a question answered. We are here to advise and assist you.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Schedule a meeting to view exciting footage of the act that will help to make yours a night to remember. We will guide you to a perfect choice based on style, song selections, your budget, and the parameters of your venue.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Request a contract to initiate a ten day hold on your chosen act(s). There is no "hold" on an act unless a contract has been created.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Return the contract with your deposit and keep one copy for yourself. Now the act is booked solid!
<input type="checkbox"/>	The DJ, bandleader, or musician will contact you approximately one month prior to your event. At that time, you will go over song choices, time lines, name pronunciations, and other details that will help our performers do their absolute best job for you. If your event is a wedding, ask the talent about our Wedding Information Sheet. This helpful packet will assist in outlining everything your entertainer needs to know.
<input type="checkbox"/>	The week of your event, our office will call to remind you of any balances due. Your balance is due on or before the date of your event and can be paid with cash, check or credit card.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Tipping is always appreciated, but is, of course, not obligatory.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Following your event, we will send you a comment sheet by mail or email. Please take a moment to respond. This is a great tool to gather client comments for our web site and help us continue to provide the best and most trusted entertainment services in Northeast Ohio.